Jharkhand Rai University, Ranchi in association with Women's Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (WICCI) has organized National E-Conference on "Empowering Tribal Women: Entrepreneurship & Skill Development, a way towards Atmanirbhar Bharat" (NCETW 2020) on 5th Dec., 2020.

The objectives of the National E-Conference was

- To provide a platform for Academicians, Industry Professionals, Entrepreneurs, Research Scholars, Students, Social Scientists, Government Expert, Bureaucrats and NGOs in identifying & prioritizing the focus area related to Tribal Woman Entrepreneurship.
- To analyze the various programs related to the development of women entrepreneurship and skill development.
- To reinforce the current alliances and networks of women entrepreneurs to express their ideas and experiences and to support women's capacity building at the national level.
- To discuss strategies, affirmative action, and policy proposals to address various issues related to entrepreneurship and skill development so to make India Self-Reliant India

The conference was duly inaugurated by lighting the lamp with the recitation of “Shubham Karoti Kalyanam”. While sharing her views on the subject, Vice Chancellor of Jharkhand Rai University and National President of Tribal Welfare and Entrepreneurship Council, WICCI, Prof. Dr. Savita Sengar while highlighting the organization of National E-Conference said, “It is a joint effort of Jharkhand Rai University, Ranchi and Tribal Welfare and Entrepreneurship Council. Our aim is to financially empower, train tribal and rural women and give global recognition to their skills. Dr. Sengar said that women are still victims of inequality. Tribal women have not been able to become financially prosperous even after doing hard labor. WICCI is continuously working in this direction. Its main functions include promoting sustainable development and entrepreneurship. In line with this vision, Idea Pitching Contest was organized which was a successful effort, through which young women entrepreneurs got a platform to display their original ideas and innovative ideas were also rewarded. She also praised the meaningful efforts of the Ministry of Tribal Affairs, Government of India, through which the works are being Dr. Sengar informed that in collaboration with Tribal Welfare and Entrepreneurship Council, WICCI, Tribal Talent Pool Business Benchers “Bio Ayurveda” has been established which is working to provide a global platform to tribal products. In this, the work of providing training, product collection and production to the market is done. She told that it is functioning as a Center for Excellence. Expressing hope that new road maps will be available through the conference, she said it will give impetus to the efforts.

Addressing a one-day national e-conference organized at Jharkhand Rai University, Union Tribal Affairs Minister Arjun Munda said that “tribals have lived on trust not on wealth. Even after a long period of independence, many areas remained untouched. Politically, many tasks about the society about the country are incomplete. We need to change the way we look. The Ministry of Tribal Affairs was formed after so many years of independence. The most important thing is to build trust and take forward the work being done.”He also stressed on the need to raise the society towards the basic principles of tribal society. Appreciating the efforts being made by Jharkhand Rai University, Ranchi, Tribal Welfare and Entrepreneurship Council, the Minister said that the Samudra Manthan of this National Conference would bring forth many new and meaningful things, which would be worked together.

Addressing the conference, Dr. Harbeen Arora, Founder President, Women's Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry and Chancellor (WICCI) of Jharkhand Rai University, during her inspirational address, emphasized on the "coordination of equality and the need to give opportunities to women". She said that women, due to the current social framework do not get to know the opportunities available to them. Success is everyone's right. The thinking of self-reliant India campaign is also similar, in which there is a vision of a strong and skillbased India. Let the world see the talent of India and let the message of 'We Can Do It' reach everyone. Dr. Arora also talked about e-platform C-economy which works to empower women entrepreneurs financially.”

Advisor of Jharkhand Rai University and former CMD of HEC Prof. Abhijit Ghosh, while talking about the National E-conference, said that more than 76 research papers have come from many states of the country, out of which 42 have been selected. There will be 4 invited lectures, 4 technical lectures and 2 parallel sessions in the conference.
